Reconciliation of a Penitent

In the Episcopal Church we make a public and corporate confession of sin each time we celebrate Holy Eucharist. This is part of our liturgy to prepare ourselves to participate in the Real Presence of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at the Holy Table. Sometimes a person also might wish to make a private confession to a priest and seek absolution. This sacramental rite of the church is called Reconciliation of a Penitent, and is described beginning at page 446 of the Book of Common Prayer.

There is no requirement, however, for private confessions. In the Episcopal Church we say "none must, all may, and some should."

A confession may be made any time, and not just in times of illness. It is especially appropriate during Lent. A confession is strictly confidential, and is not a matter of subsequent discussion unless a penitent so requests. Please contact Fr. Bill if you would like to discuss or learn more about this rite of reconciliation.
